GOD KEEPS HIS PROMISES

While Hezekiah is sick, God sends him a message by His prophet Isaiah, telling him he will soon die. Hezekiah prays, reminding God that he has been faithful. Then he weeps bitterly. God gives Isaiah another message for Hezekiah—that He had heard his prayer, had seen him weep, and would add 15 years to his life. God promises to turn the shadow on the sundial of Ahaz 10 degrees backward as a sign. God keeps His promise. Hezekiah recovers. The story comes from Isaiah 38

The Old Testament records prophecies of Jesus' birth and life on earth. The New Testament records their fulfillment. For example, Micah 5:2 foretells Jesus' birthplace, and Matthew 2:1 records the fulfillment. Isaiah 52:13-53:12 predicts His life as the suffering servant of God and humanity, and the four Gospels faithfully record the fulfillment. This fulfillment brings the assurance that God keeps His word
